SAP Documentation

- The ASCII Adapter

  - Implementation
    Guidelines

  - Before you Begin

  - Setting up the ASCII
    Adapter Client on the Administration
    Server

  - Working of the
    ASCII Adapter

The Structure Mapper   11.4

The Structure Mapper is a generic tool to handle complex mapping requirements based on some specific rules. It provides simple customization for creating mapping from a set of DDIC structures to destination DDIC structures. To ease the entire process of mapping a Dialog Program is provided to support this tool.

Features

- Generates mapping code for all mappings dynamically (not hardcoded).